

RECEIVED
CENTRAL FAX CENTER

DEC 18 2006

Claims.

1. This inventor lays claim to the Trailer Alignment Bracket by his own design.
2. This inventor claims that all materials and workmanship meet all Federal and State regulations to the highest quality standards.
3. This inventor claims that his design does make all types of framed trailers to a higher standard of safety.
4. This inventor claims that his design has been tested with statistical data in actual usage to ensure more quality tire wire.
5. This inventor claims that his design will increase the fuel mileage for any type of tow vehicle.
6. This inventor claims that there is no other design on and/or attached to any kind or type of trailer that ensures the accuratic of alignment tracking to the highest standard of quality.
7. This inventor claims that his design can be set manually or by computer laser for analytic accuratic.